Describe your personality and character:	I am very outgoing and love to make people laugh. I am very caring and sympathetic for others and tend to always put others first before me. I am very witty and generous as well. I hate confrontation and try to stay away from it. I always drive to succeed and hate to fail on anything I do.
How would you describe your childhood?	I was a very shy child but once I got to know you I would warm up instantly and come out of my shell. I loved to make friends and play all sorts of games with them.
What's your favorite childhood memory?	My favorite childhood memory would have to be when my mom would take me and my two younger sisters to this fun place called Fairy Tale town almost every other weekend.
Who has been the most influential person in your life, and why?	My mother would definitely be my most influential person in my life. She has taught me the meaning to life and helped me through every hard time that I have gone through. Without her I would not be the person I am today.
What awards/accomplishments are you and your family most proud of?	My accomplishments that my family and I are most proud of would have to be me getting into a great University while maintaining a high grade average and working full time.
Describe some of your hobbies and interests:	I am extremely active and love the out doors. I love to snowboard, wakeboard, run, go to the beach, hang with friends, bike, and play recreation sports.
What sports or activities have you excelled in?	I was an excellent track star and volleyball player in high school.
Describe any artistic/musical talents you have:	I am pretty good at drawing. Not to interested in playing any musical instruments.
What are your future	My future goals are to graduate college with a Bachelor's
