	differing climates, the terrain, the people, it was so magical. If I could live anywhere in the US that wasn't a major city, it would definitely be Hot Springs, Arkansas. The forest, food, history, and people are so beautiful.
If you could travel anywhere, where would it be and why?	Japan! I love that history, culture, technology and innovation can coexist so seamlessly in Japan. Reason for becoming a donor:	The opportunity to help a family in need would be such an honor for me. To be able to help a family in their journey to growing bigger and stronger truly makes me happy.
Anything we have not asked?	My Spirit Animal! My spirit animal will have to be a rare mix between a giraffe and a timber wolf. I am extremely loving and nurturing, but can be very territorial and protective; not to mention a little clumsy and dorky.

BECOMING A DONOR

How long have you been thinking about it?	a few months
Being a donor is a big responsibility. It requires going to several doctor's appointments, taking injections and having a minor outpatient surgery. Our office, the doctor's office, and your intended parent(s) will count on you to be responsible throughout the entire cycle. So you feel prepared to commit to this process?	Yes.
How do your friends and family feel about your decision?	My friends and family support me as long as I am sure of what I am getting into and that my health is not at risk.
What would you like to say to the couple who chooses you to be their donor?	I love you and I don't even know you. With every inch of my being, I'm a very loving person. If one thing is for sure, your baby will have so much love to give, and I hope your hearts are prepared to receive big love right back.
Would you be willing to take a donor compensation of $5,000 to help a couple who has been affected by the recession? It may help get you matched more quickly the first time and if you choose to come back and donate again, you would be considered a 'Previous' donor and would be given a higher fee?	Yes

Where did you grow up?	Miami, FL and Sunrise, FL.
How would you describe your family life as you were growing up?	My parents divorced when I was about 4 years old.
