BECOMING A DONOR

How long have you been thinking about it?	A little over a year
Being a donor is a big responsibility. It requires going to several doctor's appointments, taking injections and having a minor out-patient surgery. Our office, the doctor's office, and your intended parent(s) will count on you to be responsible throughout the entire cycle. So you feel prepared to commit to this process?	Yes.
How do your friends and family feel about your decision?	So far the ones who know have been supportive
What would you like to say to the couple who chooses you to be their donor?	I would like them to know that with God all things are possible
Would you be willing to take a donor compensation of $5,000 to help a couple who has been affected by the recession? It may help get you matched more quickly the first time and if you choose to come back and donate again, you would be considered a 'Previous' donor and would be given a higher fee?	No
Gifted Journeys strongly believes all loving and able couples or individuals deserve the chance to be parents regardless of sexual preference, marital status, ethnicity or sex of the egg recipient. Are you open to being matched with all types of families? If no, please explain:	I am a Christian and I have nothing against Gay co
Are you willing to meet your intended parent(s)?	No
Are you open to meeting the child in the future if that is requested?	No
Are you open to exchanging future contact information with your intended parent(s)?	No

FAMILY LIFE

What were you like as a child?	I was pretty calm and liked to be into everything.
What were you like as a teenager?	I was rebellious because I have a perfect younger sister that I was always being compared to.
